Whilst our standards of hygiene have always been exemplary, we'd like to reassure you that we've made some additional changes to the way we operate, and have taken some extra precautions, in order to keep both our visitors and staff safe. You'll notice hand sanitiser stations located throughout the site, and you are encouraged to use them whenever possible. We recommend washing your hands frequently, but especially before you eat. We cannot accept cash payments, so please be prepared to pay by card (contactless is preferred and payment limits have been increased to £45).
